

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish

Nominations for Pastoral Council

October 2010

“The pastoral council is an advisory or consultative body that is representative of, and speaks for the faithful (e.g. men, women, youth, adults, seniors, etc.). The Council discerns the needs of the community and offers the pastor its insights and wisdom. The council is responsible for seeing the pastoral picture and does not manage parish operations. The finance committee has a limited scope that deals with budget and financial matters, whereas the work of the pastoral council embraces all the pastoral dimensions of the parish. In addition to long range planning, council members deal with any pastoral matters the pastor brings before them.” (from the Archdiocese of Winnipeg Norms for Parish Pastoral Councils)

Our pastoral Council consists of 9 parishioners plus the trustees (John Hosang and Trish Maguire), a Diocesan Pastoral Council representative (Elizabeth Amow), and the pastor. The council meets on a monthly basis between September and June. Members are selected for a 3 year term. Parishioners currently on Pastoral Council are:

- Judy Albiani
- Renaud Caron
- Sandhya Fernando
- Maureen Foster-Fernandes
- Claire Hughes
- Louise King

We are looking for nominations to fill two positions on Pastoral Council. Please give prayerful consideration to this matter. A nominee should be a member of OLPH, a practicing Catholic, should be a person of faith 16 years of age or older and be available and willing to attend at least one meeting per month.
